

Executive Proclamation

Office of the Governor

Whereas, Deployed South Dakota Service Members include Active Duty, National Guard, and the Reserves; and,

Whereas, The service of our deployed South Dakota military members makes them a valuable asset to this state and nation; and,

Whereas, The families and employers of these service members make many sacrifices during periods of military service; and,

Whereas, During this holiday season it is a time to reflect on the many freedoms afforded to us because of their sacrifices; and,

Whereas, It is fitting and proper as Governor to encourage employers, schools, and all citizens of South Dakota to recognize those who are deployed and their families for their continued outstanding service to this state and country:

Now, Therefore, I, Dennis Daugaard, Governor of the state of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim all future Fridays that we have South Dakota citizens deployed in harm's way to be in South Dakota, and I join with the citizens of South Dakota in thanking them for their service to the state of South Dakota and to the United States of America.

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the state of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Sixteenth Day of December in the Year of Our Lord, Two Thousand and Fifteen.

Dennis Daugaard
